

COURTNEY RAMSEY SPEAKS

As a leadership development consultant, Courtney helps high performers become leaders people actually want to follow!

Courtney received her MBA and BBA from Texas A&M University and part of the adjunct faculty at SMU's Cox School of Business. She's a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) with SHRM and Certified Training Professional (CPTD) with ATD.

As a wife and mom, her idea of a good time is true crime, a glass of wine, and being in bed by nine. (Dateline is her favorite!)
