

COURTNEY RAMSEY SPEAKS

With a focus on relationship-building and communication, Courtney Ramsey helps leaders quit hitting snooze on the things that drive employee satisfaction, retention, and engagement.

Courtney received her MBA and BBA from Texas A&M University and was part of the adjunct faculty at SMU's Cox School of Business. She's a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) with the Society of Human Resource Management and Certified Training Professional (CPTD) with the Association for Talent Development.

As a wife and mom, her idea of a good time is true crime, a glass of wine, and being in bed by nine. (Dateline is her favorite!)
